LIVELY DAY AT LATONIA

WARM WEATHER, FAST TRACK AND CLOSE FINISHES PLEASE SPECTATORS.

Westy Hogan Runs a Fast Mile and Defeats King Gorin—Bribed Voter and Broom Peddler Give Owner Bradley Two Profitable Victories.

Latonia, Ky., June 18.—Ideal weather and track conditions was the order here this afternoon. In most of the dashes big fields started and the evenly-matched horses contributed to close contests. J. B. Respess won the two-year-old maiden race when his Pastime won in easy fashion. Wilbite proved much the best of those starting in the second race and Impressive made a runaway of it in the third race. Hickey Brothers, represented by Lucky R., claimed her for $1,300.

J. O. Whitlow's highly regarded Westy Hogan raced to his best form this afternoon when he accounted for the mile handicap of $1,000, in which he beat King Gorin easily, with Jane Straith following the pair. King Gorin was conceding Westy Hogan considerable weight, but his supporters felt confident of his ability to do so and made him a pronounced choice. The Baker representative made a game effort, but it was not good enough to land him victor. Westy Hogan showed superior speed from the start and won all the way.

A rattling finish came with the running of the fifth race, a purse affair of $1,000. Bribed Voter just managed to win by a nose from Sol Gilsey, which showed improved form over his recent races. The fractious-acting Phocion landed in third place. He was again unruly while at the barrier and made several attempts to kick his closest opponent.

E. R. Bradley made it a double during the afternoon when his Broom Peddler won the sixth race. The victories of Bribed Voter and Broom Peddler were attended with much profit for the owner, who is said to have backed them extensively.

J. M. Goode bought Courier on private terms from E. R. Bradley after the running of the first race.

Many of the owners here are awaiting definite advices from Joseph A. Murphy relative to Grand Rapids and quite a number intend going there for the ten days meeting announced to begin July 4.

Jockeys Dishmon and Shilling each incurred a three-days suspension from the starter in the fifth race, as a result of their disobedience at the post.

B. J. Brannon yesterday bought of D. Scott the yearling colt by Ivan the Terrible—Beatrice K. and the yearling by Handsel—Axis.

Mayor Lusing, of Windsor, Ont., was among today's visitors. W. J. Pulling, who is extensively interested in the Windsor Jockey Club, was another visitor.

Because of his bad post acting, Rey's entry will in the future not be accepted at this track.

Judge Allie Young's Debut as Owner.

Judge Allie W. Young's debut as an owner was made in the opening race. His colors, white jacket, white sleeves with gold stripes and gold cuffs, were carried by the two-year-old chestnut colt, Dr. Nickell, by English Lad—Santa Susanna. The youngster ran green and finished last, save Charley Nolte. Judge Young, however, has a much better colt by English Lad. His dam is the good mare Beautiful Bess. Both of these mares Judge Young bought from William E. Phillips while they were in foal to English Lad. They are both together at Hon. Johnson N. Camden's farm in Woodford County, where they have each a suckling foal by Ben Brush.

Jockey Lowder, recently released by E. R. Bradley, departed for Ottawa, where he will ride for E. T. Zollicoffer.

Today's arrivals from Devonshire Park, Windsor, included the horses of Howard Oots, J. B. Goodman and J. M. Henry, Jr.

Stake blanks for the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington, to be run in 1919, were distributed to owners here this afternoon. The entries close July 2.

Knebelkamp & Howerton added Margaret N. to their stable this morning, buying her at private sale from F. E. Brown.

Jockey R. McDermott came from Canada this morning and will ride for Howard Oots at this meeting.

The program book of the Grand Rapids meeting will arrive tomorrow, according to advices received from Joseph A. Murphy, who is at present in Grand Rapids.

Work-outs at Latonia Sunday were over a fast track and included the following:

Fred Burlew, the American trainer, is returning to the States, and before leaving France, turned over Mr. Thomas Hitchcock's horses to Charles Bartholomew.—London Sportsman.

URGE BUMPER CROP OF FOALS.

James W. Gerard, Former Ambassador to Germany, Says Breeding Industry Should Be Encouraged.

New York, June 18.—The appeal which is being made by the Jockey Club, the National Federation of Horse Shows, the Hackney Society and kindred other organizations throughout the country to the farmers of the United States for a breeding campaign of unusual proportions has met with the approval of all, who are familiar with present-day conditions in the horse breeding industry both at home and abroad.

To none has it come with greater force than to the Hon. James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, who is familiar with the policy that has given continental Europe such splendid war horses. Mr. Gerard is a son-in-law of the late Marcus Daly, who brought some of the best thoroughbred blood of Europe to the United States. He was a daring cross-country rider, knows horses thoroughly, and his opinion should carry weight with American horse breeders.

"This war is calling for horses as well as for men of fighting spirit," said Mr. Gerard at the Ritz Carlton, "and while cavalry has played only a small part in hostilities to date it does not follow that they will not be needed later on. Germany and Austria are prepared for any emergency through the establishment many years ago of a system of studs for the production of army horses which is only rivaled by that of France. Only those who have visited continental Europe and have seen the system under operation can appreciate the care and expense bestowed upon the work. Racing and army horse breeding are so closely allied that the recent announcement of 108 days of sport in the German Empire this year, while it caused comment here, only means that the enemy is keeping up the speed tests in order to find the most desirable material for the twenty-four great breeding studs that are scattered throughout the empire.

Chief Stud Located at Graditz.

"The chief of these is located at Graditz in East Prussia, and was founded by Count Lehndorff, the famous Prussian Master of Horse. Only horses whose breeding in all parts trace in a direct line to the English Stud Book are kept at Graditz, and none is considered worthy to be a member of that band which has not demonstrated his quality on the racecourse. Count Lehndorff gave 21,000 guineas for the Irish-bred Ard Patrick, a winner of the Epsom Derby, and 14,000 guineas for his half brother, Galtee More. This would indicate that money was not a consideration in the development of the plan, which was inaugurated in the late sixties and had assumed such proportions that in 1870 16,000 mares were bred in East Prussia alone. This number was increased in 1910 to 47,000, and the cost of the upkeep of the various establishments was given in the budget for that year at 388,552 pounds sterling, or almost two millions of our money. The revenue from stud fees, which are purely nominal, sometimes as low as $3 at country establishments, and from speculation on the race courses in the same year amounted to 216,221 pounds sterling, leaving a deficit of 172,341 pounds sterling to be defrayed by the Prussian government.

"When the Russians invaded East Prussia during the early days of the war and carried off more than 10,000 of their prized brood mares there was greater regret than over any other incident connected with that campaign. Americans have never placed a proper value on their mares, and I am glad to learn that their purchase for army use has been forbidden by our government. Every available matron of the proper type will be needed to rehabilitate our supply of war horses.

"It ought to be an obligation," said Mr. Gerard in conclusion, "for every farmer and horse breeder in the country to see that the crop of foals next season should be the largest in the history of the United States. If the rural communities have not the type of sire which is needed to secure the best results an appeal should be made to the government. There is an abundance of good warm blood in the country, and it should be had for the asking for such a patriotic purpose. The Breeding Bureau policies of the Jockey Club, in this state, and of the Kentucky State Racing Commission in Kentucky, might well be emulated by every state in the Union."

HORSES GATHERING AT GRAND RAPIDS.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 18.—The march of thoroughbreds on Grand Rapids has started and it is probable that there will be 250 horses on the grounds before the week is out. Superintendent Rector has had the California harrow on the track and it could be raced over tomorrow.

Waldo P. Johnson, G. H. Keene, J. A. Gibson, George Chancellor, The Nevada Stable, Dan Freeman, W. H. Fizer and many others have already applied for stable room. John Carey has wired from Devonshire that many of the horses from there will be shipped here. Shaun Gilmartin, representing Mortimer Mahoney, spent today here and the mutuel plant was laid out. The Bowie machines will be used. As Grand Rapids is not within the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club, Canadian Racing Associations or Kentucky State Racing Commission, two-year-olds that raced before April 1, will be allowed to race here.

The novelty of an open-air paddock as at Saratoga, will be tried here. It will be situated behind the grandstand in a clump of trees. It is only a few feet from the show barn, which can be used in bad weather.

OPTIMISTIC ABOUT TURF'S FUTURE.

August Belmont Believes Present Season Will Show Relationship Between Breeding and Racing.

New York, June 18.—In matters related to the turf, its past history and what the future has in prospect for this admittedly most important adjunct to the breeding interests of the country, there probably is no man in the United States better qualified to speak than August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club.

Therefore it would appear that anything he might have to say on this important subject will be well worth perusal. Mr. Belmont is optimistic when the future of the turf in the United States is under discussion. He believes that the present season will demonstrate anew the close relationship between racing and horse breeding, as there will be an increased demand for army horses, particularly those of the remount type, and that the public at large will be placed in possession of facts in connection with the breeding industry and racing which will be enlightening.

"France, although torn by war," said Mr. Belmont, "has never lost sight of the fact that racing tests are absolutely the only standard by which breeding values may be determined. The cables recently told us how Frank Hitchcock's American-bred horse Sandy Hook won the first feature race at Chantilly at the meeting which is being conducted under governmental auspices without speculation and with only trainers and others connected with the racing and breeding industries present. This meeting had for its object the selection of the best products of the various farms in France for breeding purposes, and is indicative of their policy to let nothing interfere with the conservation of their horse product.

"There has been an impression in some quarters," resumed Mr. Belmont, "that the governmental studs of France have been injured beyond repair, but this is not true. The horses are still there, and there are many private French studs and the American studs of William K. Vanderbilt, Clarence H. Mackay, Mrs. Duryea, Joseph E. Widener, John Sanford and my own, where breeding is still being carried on.

American Horses Safe in France.

"Some French troopers, in the excitement of the early days of the war before the Germans entered Chantilly, took several American-owned thoroughbreds without authority, among them being my horse Bavard III., by Ethelbert—Bivouac, but they subsequently returned him and finally bought him to place in their stud for 12,000 francs.

"He was the type of horse they wanted and besides being a good individual was a large winner at three and four years of age, suffering defeat by only a nose for the Prix Municipal, the feature race of the autumn season.

"England has most of her horses also, and no doubt the large studs will be kept intact. The British have deemed it wise to discontinue racing this season because of the lack of cars for transportation and the impending shortage of food supplies.

"Racing in England and France has always been regarded as an essential test. Unfortunately in this country, however, we have allowed our prejudices against the sport to run riot, thus bringing about an economic catastrophe such as was precipitated in 1908.

"Now comes the government's complaint through Mr. Rommel, the head of the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, that they haven't enough horses. It seems to me that the situation in connection with the sport in the United States was well put in a recent editorial in the Springfield Republican, one of the safest and sanest of our American publications, which is far removed from the scene of racing, there having been no trotting or running meetings at Hampden Park in many years.

"This editorial was induced by General Wood's letter to me, expressing the hope that there would be no curtailment in racing in this country because of its importance in connection with horse breeding. The editorial said in substance that the sport was worth while because of the benefits derived through it, and that the moral aspect, as evidenced by incidental speculations, was practically negligible when measured by the results obtained."

CURRENT NOTES QF THE TURF.

Fully 6,000 people witnessed the concluding day's racing at Hillcrest Park, Toronto, last Saturday.

R. T. Wilson's Campfire worked a mile in 1:46 Saturday at Belmont Park and appears ready for a race.

Alex Humphrey, Jr.'s great race mare Bronzewing by Stalwart, has foaled a chestnut colt by Ballot. Mare returned to Ballot.

Up to the end of May the most successful jockey in New Zealand was J. O'Shea, with 59 wins to his credit, next coming A. Reed, 56; J. Olsen, 55; and C. Emerson, 50.

Rosemary was claimed by G. A. Alexandra out of the second race at Maisonneuve Saturday, for $525. C. N. Freeman protested the claim, the protest being disallowed by the officials.

Artificial eyes are provided where necessary for Allied horses, and a British veterinary officer on the westen front states that the horses "do not mind the artificial eyes at all, and look awfully well with them."

The well-known Australian gelding The Parisian by Bobadil—The Parisienne, was destroyed recently in Victoria, N. S. W. The Parisian, 12 years old, was five when he won the Australian Cup, and at the commencement of the following season he added the Melbourne Cup to his account.

The will of the late Philip J. Dwyer, which was filed in the Surrogate's Court of New York Thursday, directs the executors of his estate to dispose of all his real estate and other holdings, which include an interest in the Gravesend and Aqueduct tracks, also stock in the Saratoga and other racing associations.

The story locally printed about ex-jockey Willie Sims having been arrested as a drug user by the United States authorities was not true. The negro arrested declared that he was the ex-jockey, but his story was a fable. Sims himself is in New York; has not been in Chicago for five years, and is not a drug addict.

Word has been received at Lexington to the effect that Home Brew died at Colombo en route to the United States from India. Home Brew was a bay American-bred mare, foaled 1911, by Broomstick—Jersey Lightning, by Hamburg, therefore a sister to Regret and Thunderer. Home Brew was a winner in England before being sent to India and had been purchased by Arthur B. Hancock for breeding purposes.

TAKES THE EXCELSIOR HANDICAP AT JAMAICA FROM A STAR BAND.

Borrow Finishes Second Again and Old Koenig Third, with The Finn a Poor Fourth—Green Gold Wins the Greenfield Stakes.

Jamaica, N. Y., June 18.—Showing a fast and game performance, and a return to his best 1915 form, Andrew Miller's Roamer clipped a fifth of a second from the track record to score a victory in the Excelsior Handicap, the feature of the opening of the second Jamaica meeting this afternoon. A length and a half back came the rejuvenated Borrow, which got up in the closing strides, to take second place from the fast-tiring Old Koenig, who gave way badly after racing into the lead.

Roamer's showing was the more meritorious because of the fact that he not only displayed his wonted speed, but also a bulldog gameness that enabled him to race Sortie into defeat and then dispose of the speedy Old Koenig. The Miller crack, after making Sortie quit, was taken back on the far turn, when Byrne shot Old Koenig to the front and, making his challenge in the stretch, drew out at the end. Borrow, well up throughout, was closing up ground on the leader at the end.

The Finn, H. C. Hallenbeck's black star, showed another disappointing performance and today he had no mishaps. Fourth was his position at the end, with Stromboli a close fifth. The latter pulled up lame again and it seems improbable he will be raced in the near future. The race was a truly run one, with Ormesdale, which was pinched off on the far turn, the only contestant with an excuse.

The Excelsior Handicap was first run in 1903, and its history briefly stated, is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1903	Blackstock	4	98	G. C. Fuller	$6,730	1:46⅗
1904	Rostand	4	105	H. Phillips.	6,600	1:45⅘
1905	Santa Catalina	3	93	W. Miller..	6,450	1:46⅖
1906	Merry Lark.	4	106	W. Miller..	7,350	1:47½
1907	Dr. Gardner..	4	123	J. Martin..	7,350	1:48½
1908	McCarter	4	113	J. Notter...	6,850	1:46

1915	Addie M.	3	97	J. McCahey	1,925	1:45⅘
1916	Sand Marsh	4	111	J. Butwell.	2,425	1:46
1917	Roamer	6	123	A. Schu'g'r.	2,825	1:42⅖

Not run in 1909, 1911, 1912 and 1914. Run at Belmont Park in 1913.

Green Gold's Victory Costly.

A. A. Reilly's Green Gold accounted for another selling stake when he scored in easy fashion in the Greenfield Stakes, a dash of five and a half furlongs. This youngster was bid up from his entered price of $2,000 to $2,500 by W. Travers and then Oscar Lewisohn tilted him to $3,500. He was protected by the stable.

The tabulated history of the Greenfield Selling Stakes is here shown:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1903	Ishlana	99	Larson	$1,545	1:08
1906	Sewell	110	Sewell	1,860	1:01
1907	Woodlane	108	Nicol	1,955	1:01⅘
1908	High Private	112	E. Dugan...	1,790	:53⅘
1910	Frank Mullens	107	Taplin	1,050	:54½
1913	Water Lady	103	Rightmile ..	675	1:06
1915	Regina	94	J. Morys...	675	1:07⅖
1916	Genesis	107	J. McCahey.	1:060	1:07⅘
1917	Green Gold	107	R. Troise...	1.060	1:06⅗

No racing in 1911 and 1912. Distance 5-8 mile in 1906 and 1907; 4 1-2 furlongs in 1908 and 1910. Run at Aqueduct in 1910 and at Belmont Park in 1913. Not run in 1904, 1905, 1909 and 1914.

The attendance was excellent and there was no interference by the county officials, such as marked the first meeting at this track.

Libyan Sands, winner of the second race, was bid up to $1,100 by W. Travers, but bought in by the stable for the usual $5 advance. This was a raise of $500 over his entered price. This race marked the first victory in the United States for A. Lezama, a Cuban, who has been a most liberal contributor to the thoroughbred sport in his own country.

Joe Murphy of St. Louis was an arrival from Montreal and will remain to the close of the Jamaica meeting.

Jockey Loftus Returns from Kentucky.

John Loftus, who rode Liberty Loan to victory in the Latonia Derby, returned this morning, as did J. W. May, who saddled the Macomber colt in the big race.

Thesieres pulled up lame following the running of the second race.

The Breeding Bureau's stallion Shot Gun, by Artillery—Princess Noyetti, which has been located at Major Wadsworth's estate at Geneseo, N. Y., is dead.

John E. Madden, has donated ten per cent of his winnings during the Belmont Park meeting to the Nassau County Red Cross. This amounted to $800. He will continue this practice at the present meeting and the Red Cross Association in the different counties where racing is conducted will thereby benefit for the remainder of the New York season.

Congressman Loft and his wife journeyed to the Jamaica track for the express purpose of witnessing the performance of Papp in the final race.

Mrs. A. G. Blakeley's Brumley, the beaten choice in the fifth race, was claimed for $2,700 by R. T. McKeever.

Jockey Byrne was suspended until Saturday by the stewards for foul riding in the Excelsior.

Jockey Caldwell was given the meeting for foul riding in the fifth race.

The Olympus Stable has purchased the four-year-old Gillies from John E. Madden.

THE MASQUERADER WINS OTTAWA FEATURE.

Ottawa, Ont., June 18.—W. Stormont furnished the winner of today's feature race at Connaught Park in the fast sprinter The Masquerader, which made a runaway affair of the Rideau Handicap, a dash of three-quarters, in which he beat Water Lady out by a length. Back Bay was third and Hauberk fourth.

Hearts of Oak won the Helter Skelter Steeplechase after making all of his own pace and Fountain Fay came from behind in the stretch to get up in the final stride and beat Celto out a scant half length. The Tyree stable was more fortunate in the second race when Sweep Up II. beat his opponents by three lengths.

Perfect racing weather drew out a large attendance.

A. C. Porretto received a telegram from jockey Paul Lowder that he would arrive in Ottawa on Wednesday. Lowder will finish out the season with the W. Stormont Stable and Porretto will look after making the lad's engagements.

New York, June 18.—After the conclusion of the Westchester Racing Association's meeting at Belmont Park Saturday, August Belmont expressed himself as particularly gratified over the way the meeting was patronized.

"I am grateful to the public," said Mr. Belmont, "for the forbearance they have shown during our meeting. We shall have things in better shape for their comfort before the autumn session. The time was so short between the date of the fire and our opening that a complete rehabilitation was out of the question. We did the best we could. The spring meeting has been entirely satisfactory from every point of view and we shall donate 10 per cent of our gross receipts of the autumn meeting to the Red Cross.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

J. B. B., Kansas City, Mo. Star Gaze, Undaunted and Lindenthal are brothers and sisters, all bred by John E. Madden and, by Star Shoot—Lyndall by Leonatus—Little Lou, by Monarchest.

W. W. J., Detroit, Mich. Morello was a great race horse. He is dead. He was a big rather coarse horse by Eolus—Cerise, by Moccasin—Lizzie Lucas, by Australian. R. J. Hancock of Overton, Va., bred, William Singerly owned, and Frank Van Ness trained Morello.

E. D., Chicago, Ill. No horse named Long Horn was running June 15, but Langhorne was and probably was the horse meant. (2) When there is enough money coming from any source it applies on an "if coming" commission, in the absence of any understanding otherwise.

G. G., Chicago, Ill. It was repeatedly published that at Blue Bonnets betting was straight and place only, but that horses finishing third were paid a place as well as those finishing first and second. Unless there is some strong reason to the contrary, betting elsewhere pays what the track pays.

HOW BOWIE GREW TO ITS IMPORTANCE.

Newest Maryland Track Overcame Strong Opposition and Earned Its Way to Recognition.

Baltimore, Md., June 18.—It was in October of 1914 that James F. O'Hara, Gad Bryan and their associates gave the first meeting of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Fair Association at the Bowie track, a racing ground that is just about midway between Baltimore and Washington. For that first meeting the Bowie track had to race against Laurel, an established track that had already won success, and a track that was just about a half dozen miles distant.

Many were of the opinion that the new association had absolutely no chance for success. The opposition was too strong and it was not to be expected that Maryland would support two race meetings at the same time. But Bowie went through with its meeting and, in fact, made money. The fine courage of the sportsmen who launched the new track met with a merited success and, while Laurel has its full quota of patronage, Bowie so firmly established itself on the racing map of Maryland that ever since it has had a recognized place in the Maryland schedule and it is awarded dates both spring and fall.

The spring of 1915 saw the meeting grow materially and each meeting since has more strongly entrenched the new track in the Maryland circuit. The dates that were awarded Bowie fitted in nicely with the old racing time of the old Washington Jockey Club, that raced over the Bennings track, and now Bowie is the Alpha and Omega of the eastern racing season.

Racing Dates Least Desirable in Years.

Each year Bowie has opened April 1 and the fall meeting has closed November 30. The dates coming in the early spring and the late fall make them the least desirable in all the racing year, but the quality of sport that has been offered has brought a full measure of success. As the racing prospered at the new track the purse values were raised, until Bowie attained an importance that attracted some of the best stables in training and the same progressive plans are still being followed.

For the meeting next fall it is proposed to open some stakes, though in the past the money has all been distributed in overnight purses, a plan that, as a general proposition, fits in with the ideas of horsemen at the Bowie season better than stake offerings.

One more commendable thing about the Bowie racing is that Racing Secretary Joseph McLennan has, from the first, made up his programs so that horses are required to race over useful distances. In the early spring it is usual for the secretaries to have racing cards that are made up of worthless sprinting races. Tests that are not worth while, whether they be for selling platers, or for horses of the stake division, always bring about liberal entries, for it is easier to train a horse to race five-eighths than it is to fit him to travel a mile and a quarter.

At Bowie during the first two weeks in April and the last two weeks in November, horses were required to race over a distance of ground and the races filled well. The contests were first-class and altogether the racing was much more satisfactory than it was at so many of the tracks that confined their race programs to sprinting distances.

The same policy will be continued in the meetings that are to come and Bowie is sure to steadily grow in racing importance.

TRIBUTE TO THE HORSE.

In an eloquent tribute to the horse, written by that active friend of animals, Mr. George Foster Howell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and published in a recent issue of the Ledger-Dispatch, Norfolk, Va., occur these pertinent paragraphs:

"On the battlefield the horse faces the enemy as bravely as the most heroic soldier that ever carried a bayonet, and when shot and shell tear and rend his powerful body he gives up his life for man without a whimper—he utters only the groan of the dumb and speechless. It was he who delighted the hearts of kings, princes and potentates. He is the useful servitor not only of royalty but of the humblest human creature, be he peasant or even peddler.

"One torment of the horse's life is the average thoughtlessly cruel boy who drives the grocery wagon. The youth no sooner jumps on the wagon than the reins are given a hard, sharp slap on the horse's back and he is kept going at high speed. When he wants to stop he hauls up the lines so suddenly and so violently as to almost pull the animal down on its haunches. Many of these irresponsible youths beat the horse with the whip, and the welts thus made are always silent witnesses of the boy's cruel nature, but the groceryman is too busy to know or to care what happens to his horse, so long as he can sell groceries and deliver the goods.

"In dealing with the horse, let us put ourselves in his place. Let us practice the golden rule. Suppose you were the horse and the horse the man, how would you like the horse to treat you Answer that question honestly and the whole problem of justice and mercy to the horse and to all other animals is instantly solved satisfactorily."
